The Root & Fruit

The Root and the Fruit

Before you begin, here is the framework that runs through every chapter. The Father's voice, "You are beloved," is the root. From that root, specific fruit grows in each leadership domain. These are not techniques to master. They are capacities that union with the Father produces.

Because I am beloved...

Ch 1: I bear the fruit of courage in the face of disapproval.

Ch 2: I bear the fruit of mercy even when I know I am right.

Ch 3: I have the Source that makes the full truth possible.

Ch 4: I bear the fruit of the freedom to be fully known.

Ch 5: I bear the fruit of the security to see greatness in others without feeling diminished.

Ch 6: I bear the fruit of freedom from the need to be liked.

Ch 7: I bear the fruit of the confidence that accountability and care belong in the same room.

Ch 8: I bear the fruit of the security to let go of what I built.

Ch 9: I bear the fruit of peace that is not dependent on outcomes.

Ch 10: I bear the fruit of power received, not seized.
